IN THE END
WE BUILT
DOGE A COOL
FORTRESS OF BOXES.

DOGE REALLY
IS THE LUCKIEST
CAT ON EARTH.
